

OPEN SOCIETY INSTITUTE

On the occasion of the forty-ninth session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, the Open Society Institute is pleased to invite those attending to a luncheon briefing

DRUG TREATMENT, HIV, AND THE CHALLENGE OF REFORM

Drug Treatment, HIV, and the United Nations

Daniel Wolfe, Deputy Director, International Harm Reduction
Development Program, Open Society Institute (USA)

Narcology: Drug Treatment in Russia

Professor Vladimir Mendelevich, Director, Institute for Mental Health Research, Kazan State University (Russia)

Treatment in Southeast Asia: The Need for Effective Approaches

Professor Nick Crofts, Director, Turning Point Alcohol and Drug Centre (Australia);
Director, UNODC Technical Resource Centre on Drug Treatment and Rehabilitation

Drug Treatment from the User's Perspective: The Indian Experience

Jimmy Dorabjee, Deputy Director, Centre for Harm Reduction, Macfarlane Burnet
Institute for Medical Research and Public Health (Australia);
Executive Committee Member, United Nations Task Force on Injecting
Drug Use and HIV/AIDS for Asia and the Pacific

Thursday, March 16

1:00 PM (13:00)

Vienna International Centre Restaurant Floor FOE/Mozart Room

proceedings in English

RSVP by March 14 to Open Society Institute, by email: efoldes@osi.hu

tel: +36 1 327 3100/ext.2023, or fax: +36 1 327 3101