

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1. Introduction: The Future of Women's Rights - Ellen Sprenger and Alison Symington
The Year is 2033... — The Current Juncture: Devising Strategies and Visions for the Future — The 'Facing the Future' Project — Challenges and Opportunities: Key Issues for Gender Equality and Women's Rights — Towards the Future: Strategies and Visions for Feminist Engagement — Moving Together into the Future of Women's Rights
2. From 'Opposing' to 'Proposing': Finding Proactive Global Strategies for Feminist Futures - Joanna Kerr
Extrapolating on Major Global Trends — From the 'What' to the 'How': Finding Ways to be More Strategic and Proactive — Feminist Futures: Some Conclusions
3. Creating a New World with New Visions: African Feminism and Trends in the Global Women's Movement - Bisi Adeleye-Fayemi
The Current Context of African Feminism: The Challenges We Face — Reclaiming Feminism and Feminist Spaces to Take on the Global Challenges — New Identities and Globalized Visions — Refocusing Women's Movements — Conclusion
4. Rights of Passage: Women Shaping the 21st Century - Mahnaz Afkhami
The World and Women — Strategic Choices for Women's Movements — Strategic for the Future — Conclusion: Subjecting the Inevitable to Feminist Choice
5. Challenging Power: Alternatives to the Current Global Order - An interview with Josefa (Gigi) Francisco
6. An Action Framework for South Asia — Deepa Dhanraj, Geetanjali Misra, and Srilatha Batliwala
Old Problems with New Faces — Global Processes and Growing Poverty — Increased Conflict and Militarization — Rise in Fundamentalisms and Identity Politics — Strategies for the Future
7. Different Worlds Possible: Feminist Yearnings for Shared Futures - Sarah Bracke
Struggles in Times of Late Global Capitalism: Contradictions and Possibilities — Situated Observations — Yearnings for Our Futures
8. Diversity as our Strength: Transforming Power, Public Policy and Popular Culture - Ana Criquillon
Introduction — A Broad View of Emerging and Diverging Trends — Lessons Learned From Strategies Adopted in the Past — Influence the Political Elite or Change the Rules of the Game? — Popular Culture and the Media: Key Areas for Change — Battling Fundamentalisms: A Global Priority — The Same Old Challenge Within Feminist Movements: Monotonous Similarity versus Infinite Diversity — Some Conclusions... — ... and Proposals for Strategies
9. Confronting Globalization: Feminist Political Spirituality as a Strategy of Action - Alda Facio
Introduction — Globalization and Its Impact on Women — The Spiritual is Political — Towards a Spiritual Feminist Movement Against Globalization — The First Step
10. Globalization and Reinventing the Politics of A Women's Movement - Vanessa Griffen
Prologue — Introduction: Why a Politics for the Women's Movement? — Issues Where We Need to Refocus — Creating an International Women's Movement? How to Improve Our Mobilizing and Organizing — Concluding Remarks
11. Caution! Women Moving: Strategies for Organizing Feminist Visions of the Future - Sisonke Msimang
Prologue — Feminist Practice and Women's Experiences — Globalization — HIV/AIDS — The Women's Movement(s) — Strategies for the Future
12. International and Post-Socialist Women's Rights Advocacy: Points of Convergence and Tension - Reflections from Anastasia Posadskaya-Vanderbeck
13. Gender Equality Advocates Speak: Feminist Issues and Strategies Into the Future - Rhonda Leeson
The Questionnaire, and the People Who Answered — Issues We Should Be Addressing Now — Challenges Into the Future — Strategies to Change the Present — Tactics for Creating Our Ideal Future — Some Concluding Thoughts — Survey Questions

ma
ma
cash

